WELCOME

Dear Customers,

IDM is proud to have introduced the dispenser concept to the world. It is inspiring to know that an idea in one's head can come alive and spark a global industry.

With breakthrough developments each year, IDM continues to startle the market with new, creative solutions designed to fit business needs.

Our technical team is trained to be able to meet customized requests and to have the capability of making your vision come alive in the production process.

We thank you for your support throughout the years. It has been a pleasure to serve you and to assist you in serving others. We hope to continue advancing our relationship with your business and look forward to a bright future together.

Sincerely,

Ofer Landau
